

Asian Plastic Distribution Box Brands

AI Overview

Key Asian brands and suppliers of plastic distribution boxes include major Chinese manufacturers and regional OEM/ODM providers across Asia. Leading Suppliers and Manufacturers China-Based Manufacturers Alibaba Listings: Over 1,000 suppliers and manufacturers of plastic distribution boxes are available, offering OEM, ODM, and self-patented designs. These suppliers provide a wide range of enclosures suitable for electrical and industrial applications, with options for modular designs, IP-rated protection, and custom branding. Made-in-China Suppliers: Factories in Guangdong, Zhejiang, Shandong, and Jiangsu provinces specialize in high-precision injection-molded plastic boxes. Guangdong (Dongguan, Shenzhen) focuses on complex electronics-grade enclosures, Zhejiang (Yiwu, Ningbo) excels in customizable small containers, Shandong (Qingdao) offers cost-effective bulk solutions, and Jiangsu provides industrial and consumer packaging with strong R&D support. Regional Asian Brands While many Chinese manufacturers dominate the market, other Asian countries also have notable brands producing plastic enclosures for distribution and electrical applications. These brands often provide high-quality, durable, and certified products suitable for industrial use. OEM/ODM Capabilities Many suppliers offer customization services, including logo embossing, busbar fitment, top cable entry modifications, and modular cabinet designs. This allows companies to tailor distribution boxes to specific electrical layouts or branding requirements. Considerations for Choosing a Supplier Material Quality: Common plastics include Polypropylene (PP) for rigidity and heat resistance, and Polyethylene (PE) for chemical resistance and durability. Certifications: Look for ISO 9001, CE, or other industry-specific compliance for electrical safety and quality assurance. Production Capacity: Evaluate daily output, number of production lines, and injection molding capabilities to ensure timely delivery for bulk orders. Third-Party Testing: Request S...
