

Flame-retardant plastic cable tray manufacturers

AI Overview

Leading manufacturers of flame-retardant plastic cable trays include EAE Electric, Basor Electric, Flamro, NewReach, and Accio, offering FRP, halogen-free PVC, and fire-resistant solutions for industrial and commercial applications. Key Manufacturers and Products

EAE Electric produces GRP (Glass Reinforced Plastic) cable trays that are lightweight, corrosion-resistant, and fire-resistant (UL 94 V0 rated, halogen-free). These trays are suitable for harsh environments such as oil and gas fields, tunnels, bridges, and seaside facilities, providing excellent chemical resistance and electrical insulation while maintaining structural integrity under fire conditions.

Basor Electric specializes in fire-resistant cable trays designed to maintain circuit integrity during fires. Their products are tested according to European and local standards to ensure that critical installations like emergency lighting, fire alarms, and smoke extractors remain operational under extreme fire conditions.

Flamro offers FLAMMOTECT-A coatings and DG-CR 0.7 fire protection tapes for cable trays, enhancing flame resistance and environmental durability. These solutions are widely used in high-rise buildings, industrial plants, hospitals, airports, and nuclear facilities, ensuring cables remain functional during fire emergencies.

NewReach manufactures fire-rated cable trays in materials such as fiberglass with intumescent coatings, powder-coated aluminum, and galvanized steel. Their trays are designed to prevent flame propagation, support cables during high temperatures, and comply with fire safety codes, making them suitable for critical infrastructure and industrial applications.

Accio provides plastic cable trays with flame-retardant properties, UV resistance, and durability for indoor and outdoor use. Their FRP and nylon trays meet standards like UL94 V-0, NEMA VE 1, and IEC 61537, catering to data centers, telecommunications...
