

Galvanized steel wire for hanging optical fiber cables

Overview

Galvanized stranded steel wire consists of multiple strands of zinc-coated steel wire twisted together to form a robust and flexible strength member for fiber optic cables. It offers high tensile strength and excellent resistance to corrosion, making it ideal for aerial and drop. The galvanized steel used for fiber optic cables has two main functions: one is to improve the strength of fiber optic cables (in the production and use of fiber optic cables, steel can provide additional strength, so that the fiber optic cables will not break during traction or construction). Widely used in cables, ACSR, fiber optic. The galvanized steel strand for optical cable is one of the basic components used in the Fig-8 self-support optical fiber cables for communication.
